MR. SANT'S STATEMENT

The Expert Scores Unscrupulous Democrats.

JOHN R. MARTIN UNFORTUNATE

A Few Cutting Remarks in Which the Ex-treasurer is Exonerated From Being a Defaulter—Some Statements That Will Interest the Public.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—Under ordinary circumstances modesty would forbid any attempt on my part to interfere in the present political struggle in Columbiana county, but when I find Democratic newspapers asserting that the recent investigation of the county treasury, in which I had the honor to take a somewhat important part, was "only a whitewash," and our Republican newspaper (with a Democratic editor) attempting to connect that assertion with my employment in the Crisis business office, I feel compelled in the interest of justice and fair play to ask leave to explain, and more especially so because I find these Democratic newspapers, the Crisis and the Patriot, still harping on the broken string, that that much abused and long suffering man, John R. Martin, is a defaulter.

I wish to say then first, for the benefit of the Salem News, that my former and recent connection with the Crisis business office has been "for revenue only," that the investigation of the county treasury was as thorough and complete as the abilities for which the Crisis of Oct. 11 so kindly gives me credit enabled me to make; that the one conviction most forcibly impressed upon my mind was that of the honesty of John R. Martin, and I am pleased to add of his deputy and assistants.

It has afforded me pleasure to know that the editors, both of the Crisis and the Patriot, have repeatedly in conversation expressed their belief that John R. Martin is as honest as any man in the county. What do they mean? Can a man be a defaulter and be honest? I believe the general acceptance of the term defaulter implies dishonesty, and certainly that is the construction put upon it by the manifesto. What must be the exigencies of the Democratic party in Columbiana county when its leaders (honorable men?) are compelled to do violence to their own expressed opinions, and in so doing add to the distress of the most unfortunate man in this county.

But, sir, even if we should consider that the term defaulter might be properly applied to an official unable to pay over the balances shown to be due from him, John R. Martin is no defaulter; for such an admission presupposes that the accounts shall have been correctly made up, and that the official shall have actually been in possession of all the money charged to him. If these conditions had been complied with Mr. Martin would have found himself in possession of a handsome surplus after meeting all demands of the county on September 3. Whatever difference of opinion there may have been room for as to Mr. Martin being a defaulter, there can be no doubt as to the proper application of the term slanderer to any person who after this calls John R. Martin a defaulter.

The question has been asked, "why should Mr. Martin's bondsmen pay to the county $4,050.00 if he was not in some sense a defaulter?"

This brings me face to face with the frantic attempts of the same Democratic papers to discredit the county commissioners, and they may be surprised to learn that it was in consequence of two things that the bondsmen (contrary to my advice) paid over $4050, and that these were conscientiousness on the part of the bondsmen and carefulness on the part of the commissioners. The bondsmen admitted that it might be held that John R. Martin had in a legal sense received the $7000.23 from Ex-Treasurer Kepner which if my views are correct, he really did not receive, and therefore they did not consider it in making a settlement with the county; then, while the commissioners admitted that Martin had been charged with $1,842 which really had not been collected at all, they insisted on its being paid on the ground that through Martin not having found out the overcharge sooner, it might be impossible to collect the whole amount now; at the same time it was agreed that the new treasurer use all lawful means to collect and as collected pay back to the bondsmen.

Samuel Bye, against whom the efforts of these Democrats are particularly directed, is chairman of the board of commissioners, and although my work at the county seat did not embrace any special investigation of the work of that body, it did bring a good deal of it under my observation, and I formed the opinion that the commissioners exercised a great deal more caution in laying out the money of the taxpayers than the majority of the taxpayers do in laying out their own money.

As to their charges against Commissioner Phillips, do they or do they not know that his amount covered a period of 13 months? Anyway, such is the case, and I would suggest that they figure out the day's mileage on that basis.

Some time ago the Crisis published an article on "Minority Representation." I would ask in this connection whether the Crisis would advocate the same plan in the event of the Democratic party obtaining control of the county.

In its issue of the 25th inst., the Crisis says that there has been no investigation of a "particular portion of the treasurer's accounts," presumably the personal delinquent. Now no one can know better than I do just what has been done, and I say that the whole of the accounts, including those relating to delinquent personal, dog tax, special borough taxes and even ditch taxes, received at my hands the most searching investigation as far back as Sept. 2, 1890, and as far as I can learn all the money collected by Martin under any and all of these or any other headings, has been duly accounted for.

I have written this without the knowledge of any other person, because when I found the Democratic editor of a Republican paper trying to give the random assertions of his allies the sanction of my authority, I suspected it an undercurrent of Democratic scheme to which I was unwilling to be even a sleeping partner. I only regret that in view of pending litigation it has been deemed expedient to delay the publication of my report, which not only discloses just how matters stand, but also locates the responsibility.

But my strongest motive in trespassing on your space has been to defend an innocent man from the shameful attacks of unscrupulous politicians.

I remain yours truly,
JOHN SANT.

THOSE STOLEN CARTRIDGES.

The True Inwardness of the Affairs—An Unlikely Tongue is a Bad Member.

A fake paper, published in some remote and unsavory portion of East Liverpool, referred last night to an article published some time since in the News Review, in which the statement was made that 750 out of 1000 rounds of ammunition had been stolen from the armory of Company E, using Walter Supplee as authority, the rat alley abomination has this quotation: "There is no truth in the statement. The whole story as published is a fake, and the originator should be taken by the heels and dumped out of some third story window." In the first place, we believe the fake paper, Walter Supplee's bitter and unrelenting enemy, has misquoted him. But, if Walter Supplee, first lieutenant of Company E, did use the language referred to, then is he a very foolish and unwise man, as he, Walter Supplee, is authority for the statement that the 750 cartridges were stolen or carried away, unknown to the officers of the company. In a conversation held late last evening with Charles Sinclair, second lieutenant of E Company, that gentleman said: "I can't believe that Walter Supplee made use of any such language. I went into the armory just after Supplee had counted the cartridges, and he informed me that about 750 cartridges were missing." Continuing the conversation, Lieutenant Sinclair said: "To the best of my knowledge the cartridges are still missing." Further than this, we have proof, from other members of the company, that Walter Supplee, first lieutenant of Company E, stated that it was a fact that the cartridges were missing. In the light of such proof, and if Walter Supplee is correctly quoted in the misfit in the alley, then Walter should be taken by the heels and dumped out of some convenient third story window.

The truth is that the cartridges are and have been missing, and that the company would have been in a nasty predicament in case of riot or trouble, and the officer in command of the company would have been directly responsible for such a state of affairs. The News Review aims at reliability, and avoids sensational stories if possible, and when it publishes a truthful statement it backs that statement up, no matter whom it hurts.

PAYING FOR PLAYING

Mayor Gilbert Fines the East End Men.

MATTIE EOFF IN A NEW ROLE

Causes the Arrest of a Young Man and Then Withdraws the Charge, Bearing the Expense—Assault and Battery Cases. A Plain Drink.

The East End men, who were caught playing poker by Officer Supplee, answered the call of Mayor Gilbert last evening.

John DeHaven was the only one who appeared to pay his fine, and when it was announced that his ante was $7.00 he paid it gladly in order to get out of the scrape. Fred Malcomb, Arthur Shinn and Washington Arnold, make up the remainder of the party, but they failed to appear. Instead of coming in person they informed the mayor that they were ready to liquidate. Each one will contribute $7.00 to the resources of the city. Every effort was made to keep the names from the public, but as the true names of the men were on the charge none that were fictitious could be made to answer.

Officer Supplee arrested Jack Pollock last evening because there was a charge of assault and battery against him. Complaint was laid against Pollock because he slapped Wilbur Vale, an East End boy, in some little difficulty which arose between them. When taken in the presence of the mayor the accused made no attempt to deny the action, and paid $7.00 for the part he played in the incident.

John Porter Kays, a young man who is employed at the Brunt knob works, and has always been an excellent reputation, was arrested last night at a dance on a warrant sworn out by the "dead" Mattie Eoff. Constable Albright made the arrest, and took his captive to jail. This morning the case was heard by Squire Manley, but the woman could not prove her case and the young man was released. She withdrew the charge and paid the costs. It will be remembered that one of Mattie's relatives wrote the News Review stating that she was dead. Her appearance, however, in the city, proves that some one has been juggling with the truth.

Another assault and battery case from East End was docketed in Squire Rose's court this morning. Michael McDonald and Simon Schneider live in that section of the city and there was an unsettled bill between them for labor performed. They argued the matter until Mike's wrath caused him to grab his friend Simon by the neck and prove to his own satisfaction how long Mr. Schneider could hold his breath and exist comfortably. To this action Simon made no immediate objection, but this morning he caused Constable Lyons to call on Michael and arrest him. Squire Rose called the attention of the prisoner to the fact that even experiments intended for the benefit of the human race were sometimes unlawful and Michael bowed in humble submission to the statutes. He made no denial of the choking affair, although when he paid his fine of $2 and costs, $6.65 in all, he was heard to remark that that was "no choke."

A man named Jackson was arrested by Officer Badgley last night near the Horn switch. When taken Jackson was so drunk that he could not walk and the patrol was called and conveyed him to city hall. When searched he was found to have nothing in his possession except a bottle of whiskey. Jackson was released this morning on the promise of friends to call and settle.

John McFadden was defending himself against a charge of selling liquor on Sunday in Mayor Gilbert's court this afternoon. The case was heard before a jury.

ONE CRIMINAL CASE.

Given Out For the Sixth Assignment.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.
NEW LISBON, Oct. 30.—The sixth assignment was made public today, and provides that the case of the state against William McCue and John Fox be heard Nov. 12. It is the only criminal action in the assignment.

Charles Chandler, who has a number of relatives in the southern part of the county, was before Judge Young this morning. He was discharged from the Newburg asylum in June, and the hearing today was for the purpose of having him admitted again.

A. Todd, a resident of this township, brought suit against Thomas Patterson to recover $104.50 which he claims is due him on an account.

The case of Jacob Myers against W. J. Adams asking damages for $60, because the defendant broke an agreement having for its principle part the employment of Myers to build a barn, was heard today. The jury was out three hours and awarded Myers $30. Both parties are from West township.

The application to probate the will of the late George Firth, of Salem township, was heard today by Judge Young and the same admitted. The commission issued several days ago to take the testimony of witnesses to the will of the late Maggie Little, of Hanover township, was returned today and the will admitted to probate. A. M. Little being qualified as executor with $6,000. James Burson, Jacob Temple and E. Swearingen were appointed appraisers.

William C. Sherbine, executor of Jane Hawkins' estate, filed his final distributive account today which was recorded and allowed as his final discharge.

Miss Lizzie Saltzman Dead.

Miss Lizzie, daughter of Mrs. Mary Saltzman, died at her home near the corner of Third and Market streets at 12:25 o'clock today after but 10 days illness with inflammation of the bowels. Deceased was aged 24 years and had been employed in one of the river potteries. Her death is regretted by a large circle of friends and relatives of whom the latter are two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Andrew Saltzman, Mingo Junction; Mrs. Henry Chambers, East End; John W. Saltzman, Wellsville; Hamaline Saltzman, Bergholz. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

A New Electrical Fuke.

Since the telephone lines were rebuilt people who were asked to sign deeds for the ground which the poles actually occupy imagined that they were deeding away important concessions, and all sorts of stories have been floating between this place and Beaver regarding the electric line that was to be built within a year. When asked about the rumor Manager Swaney said that the company had no more intention of building an electric line than of flying. They were simply building a good line, and they wanted every form carried out so there would be no controversy in the future.

Almost a Fire.

The fire department was called out a few minutes before 1 o'clock this afternoon by an alarm from box 35, but when they reached the Ferguson & Hill building the flames had been extinguished. The fire was discovered by Mr. Ferguson, and hastening to Hoffman's gallery he found that the stove used by him as a kiln for firing his ware had become so hot as to burn a hole in the floor. Turning on a water faucet nearby he soon saw the fire ended. Meantime the department had responded to the alarm sent in by Will Kinzey. The damage is trifling.

A Difference of Opinion.

A special meeting of the board of education was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of letting the plumbing contract for the new building. A number of bids were opened and there was a diversity of opinion as to what the work should cost, one bid being over twice as much as the lowest price asked for the work. The contract was given to Burner & Faulk for $186.82. Plastering has been started in the basement, it not being necessary to have the roof on the building when hard plaster is being used.

Good Words for Taylor.

Congressman Boutelle who came from his home in Maine to do some campaign work in this state, regrets that he can not speak in the Eighteenth district for R. W. Taylor. Mr. Boutelle regards our candidate as one of the most promising of the new men nominated for congress, and says that he will prove a valuable reinforcement to the champions of protection in the house. He expressed every confidence that the intelligent wage-earners of the district will elect him by a big majority.

Misunderstood the Squire.

In quoting Squire Rose in regard to the coming trial of Charles H. Rose, in yesterday's News Review, an error crept in, and today the gentleman said: "The statement regarding the suit for damages in the sum of $10,000 is right, and it will be pushed regardless of any other action. What I said yesterday was, it is possible that if she had not pushed her case the suit for damages would not have been brought, but that time has passed."

Losing an Eyelid.

The old wooden awning which so long stood in front of the blacksmith shop on West Market street is being torn down today. The appearance of the street will be improved by the absence of what has long been an eyesore to residents in that part of the city.

VERY NEAR TO DEATH

The Close Call of a Norton Street Baby.

ROCKS SCATTERED BY A BLAST

Came Within Eight Inches of Where the Child Lay—Two Houses Damaged and Several Workmen Have Narrow Escapes From Flying Stones.

A child cooling in a hammock hanging near the window of a house on Norton street, was near to death yesterday afternoon.

The house of Jacob Herman on Norton street was being raised to the level of the street, and contractor Frank Myers found that he would be compelled to use powder to remove rocks which came in his way. Yesterday afternoon a blast blew out instead of working downward, and the air was filled with flying pieces of rock. One great stone mashed in the end of the kitchen, others broke panes of glass, and another in coming down went through the roof. Several workmen came near being hit, but fortunately the stones did not touch a human being. The most narrow escape was that of a babe in the house on the next lot. It occupied a hammock swung close to a window when a piece of stone weighing at least 50 pounds came toward the building. Fortunately for the child the stone was too low to come in at the window, although it struck the sill and mashed it. Had it been eight inches higher the child would have been killed. The damage done by the explosion did not amount to much, but the close calls of those in the vicinity caused no end of excitement for a few minutes.

Funeral Today.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burns died at the home of George Marshall, Third street Sunday night, after a brief illness with fever. The funeral took place from St. Stephens Episcopal church at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the remains were laid to rest in Spring Grove cemetery.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Squire Ephraim Johnston at his late home in Grant district at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Washington Johnston and family, of Fourth street, and George Johnston, sons of deceased, went over this morning to attend the funeral.

Doctor Lee's Reception.

The First Presbyterian church was crowded last evening at the reception tendered Rev. Dr. Lee, the pastor. That gentleman, Mrs. Lee and the committee received the people at the west door of the Sunday school room, from where they passed into the auditorium. Addresses were made by Reverend Lowry, of Wellsville, and Doctor Lee, and the evening spent in a delightful manner. The attendance was very large, and the reception accorded the new pastor and his wife was cordial in the extreme.

Tell Over a Log.

When Chief Adam and S. C. Wallace, an East-Brady resident who has been visiting at the residence of J. C. Wallace, were hunting on the farm of J. G. Warner yesterday, Mr. Wallace suffered an accident which will cause him to remember the trip for months. When attempting to cross a log his foot slipped, and he fell alighting on his gun. The piece was not discharged but his side was so badly hurt by the fall that the attending physician believes it will trouble him for months.

Will be Wedded.

Mr. S. Whit, the well known Diamond business man, left this morning for Ashbury Park, N. J., and will in a few days become a benedict. The happy young lady is Miss Rhea Rose, a graduate of Vassar, and popular in Ashbury society. The wedding will take place at high noon on Thursday next, and after a honeymoon of several weeks Mr. and Mrs. Whit will return to this city to make their home.

Want the Humane Society.

People on Norton street are complaining because a friendless horse is permitted to roam about that section and is abused by boys. The animal was originally given to some lad, who finding that he could not care for him gave it to another boy who has turned it out. People up that way think this is an excellent chance for the Humane society to do some work.

An Accident.

While expressman Fair was driving up the hill to Chestnut street yesterday afternoon the wagon slipped back and the outfit slid down the hill. The shafts of the wagon were demolished by the accident but no more serious damage was done.

Don't tell your friends and neighbors that you are voting for Coxey, for some day you will be ashamed of it.

EXPERT SANT gives the unprin-ciple Democratic press a few interesting shots which it will not likely forget.

The fight at the polls is on the simple question of a system of high duties against low tariff and ultimately free trade.

So the money question does not cut such a figure in the campaign after all. The Democrats could not keep the people from the real issue.

THE COXEY men about Massillon spread the report that the common-wealer's house had been destroyed by partisan incendiaries when it was well known that a defective flue was the real cause.

A WRITER in the Forum places David B. Hill in the right light when he styles him "a product of machine politics whose career may at any time be closed by the same artificial forces that have made it."

"A DEMOCRAT" writing to an eastern publication makes the prediction that in the coming November elections the Republican party will sweep the country as follows: Massachusetts with a majority of 110,000, New York 70,000, New Jersey 25,000, Pennsylvania 250,000, Illinois 60,000, Ohio 100,000, Colorado 20,000, California 35,000, and in the west the Populists will be completely obliterated. All this will happen because of a debased and demoralized Democracy.

NEXT TUESDAY.

Every man who has a vote is called upon to declare next Tuesday whether he will cast a vote for prosperity or for poverty. He has it in his power to vote the Republican ticket upon a platform which means work and good wages, or he has the option of standing with the Democrats upon a set of principles which have already lost the nation millions. There is not a man in the city who has not experienced more than he desires in results of the false promises made by Democracy, and can in a measure prevent a repetition of the recent hard times by aiding in the election of a Republican congressman. The present congress cost East Liverpool more money than it could lose by an awful catastrophe, and leaders of the party have promised that the loss should be greater when they declared that the revision of the tariff was not complete, more changes being in contemplation. Judging from the standpoint of common sense it is the duty of every man who is employed in a protected industry to vote for his own interests, and he will not be aiding himself if he supports Raff, the political puzzle, or Coxey, the political clown.

COOK GANG RUN DOWN

Officers Bring Two Into Fort Gibson, I. T.

FIVE ARRESTED NEAR SAPULPA.

Officers in Hot Pursuit of the Rest of the Bandits—Cook and French Not Among the Captured—One of Them Desperately Resists Arrest.

FORT GIBSON, I. T., Oct. 30.—Deputy Marshal Boudin and posse have come in with two prisoners supposed to belong to the Cook gang. One of them gives his name as Jim Price, and is identified as the man who jumped his bond at Paris, Tex., eight months ago. He was on bond for stealing horses and disappeared a few days before his trial.

The other says that his name is Lon Perry, but it is believed from the description given that he is really Perry Brown and one of the Cook gang. Marshal Boudin and his men had been after him for two days, and the other night located him in the mountains, 8 or 10 miles north of this place, and shortly after dark captured him after a fight.
He insists that he is not the man wanted, but the officers say that they have criminating evidence against him.

John Beck, deputy United States marshal, has wired the authorities at Muskegon that five of the Cook gang have been arrested near Sapulpa and that the officers are in pursuit of the others.

Deputy Dobson, who brought the news to this point, when asked about the authenticity of the telegram, said that Beck was one of the most reliable men on the force and that there was no doubt that the report was true. Only two of the parties are known. Cook and French, the two leaders, are not among them.

The Santa Fe Case Argued.

TOPEKA, Oct. 30.—The case involving the election of directors for the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe company came up before Judge Foster of the United States District court—the point involved being whether or not the cumulative system of voting shall be allowed, that is, can stockholders cast votes equal to their exact number of shares multiplied by 13 (the number of directors to be elected) for one director, or must they cast for each director, votes not exceeding the respective number of shares held by each one voting. After arguments Judge Foster took the case under advisement and announced he would report a decision today.

Must Let Bonded Liquor Alone.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The attorney general has rendered an opinion on the South Carolina dispensary case presented by Governor Tillman in which he sustains the opinion of the treasury department, holding that the state has no authority in the law to enter government bonded warehouses for the purpose of seizing whisky declared by the state law to be subject to confiscation.

Attempted to Wreck a Train.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 30.—The Louisville and Nashville officials have reported a most distinctly attempt to wreck their express from Washington.
Three miles east of Frankfort in Dunley's cutties had been fastened on the track so that the train would have been wrecked but for the timely discovery of Polk McKenna, the engineer. As this is the third attempt recently at wrecking in that locality, a watch will be kept on the line.

Noted Divines Attending.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 30.—This afternoon the meeting of the executive committee of the western section of the Pan Presbyterian congress is taking place in Franklin street church. The purpose of the meeting is to arrange a programme for the next session of the Pan Presbyterian congress, which will meet at Glasgow, Scotland. Noted divines from all over the country and Canada are attending the meeting.

Bishop Whitaker's Anniversary.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—The committee having in charge the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Whitaker, changed the date from Oct. 17, on which day a meeting of the house of bishops was held, to this date. The actual date of his consecration was Wednesday, Oct.
13, 1869, Bishop McViney of Ohio being the consecrator.

Lavigne Given the Decision.

CONEY ISLAND, N. Y., Oct. 30.—The fight between Griffin and Lavigne was awarded to the latter in the thirteenth round. In the bout between Joe Gates and Jack Madden, the latter was awarded the decision at the end of the fifth round. The police stopped the bout between Dolly Lyons and Kid Hogan in the second round and Hogan was declared the winner by the referee.

COLONEL COIT'S REPORT.

He Explains His Conduct at Washington
C. H. to Governor McKinley.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 30.—Colonel Coit, who commanded the troops at Washington C. H., says in his official report to Governor McKinley that at 2 p. m. the crowd became so large, so demonstrative and threatening he was unable to hold the guards at the outside of the courthouse and drew them in, protecting from the mob the south and west entrances with small details, drawing the remainder of the troops to the north entrance of the courthouse and the jail, which was northeast from this entrance. "At 3 p. m.," says he, "leaders of the mob began to lead the mob to the courthouse, saying they would rush for the prisoner when brought to the jail.
I refused. I was then told the prisoner should not get into the courthouse alive if they had to kill all the troops to get him. I had 76 good rifles. There were over 2,000 people assembled. When the prisoner appeared between the military lines on route to the courthouse, the crowd with a yell broke the lines. Six military officers in a hand-to-hand conflict threw citizens off the steps. The troops used bayonets and butts of guns.
Dr. Taylor, military surgeon, was cut with a knife.

Then the report says that when the prisoner had been sentenced to 20 years Colonel Coit informed the people, hoping to quiet them. Demands for the prisoner continued. Threats were renewed. Colonel Coit told the crowd the guns had not been loaded, but would be now, and if another assault was made his men would fire. Finally Colonel Coit heard the south door give way, followed by shots of the guard. Lieutenant Oyer says a shot was fired from the outside before the troops fired. Lieutenants Goldney and Baker and the deputy sheriffs confirm this. Colonel Coit closes with regrets that the killing ensued, but repeated warnings had been given by himself and citizens who are named.

A LONG DROUGHT.

It is Causing Much Distress Among the West Virginians.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 30.—The long drought has caused great distress among the farmers and lumbermen along the Little Kanawaha, wells and springs that never failed before have been dry for months and many streams have dried up, stock has suffered greatly, having to be driven miles to water.
A large proportion of the late crops have failed.

There has not been a timber rise for some months and it is estimated that at least $750,000 worth of logs, ties and lumber is lying along the creek and river banks. Many sawmills have been compelled to shut down for want of logs.

A West Virginia Company's Suit.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 30.—The trial of the suit of the American Distributing company of West Virginia against Messrs.
Martin & McAndrews, the liquor dealers, is being continued in the court of common pleas. The suit is to recover $1,034, with interest, for 10 barrels of spirits.
Martin & McAndrews claim that the distributing company was, in reality, an agent of the whisky trust and they have a bundle of the unpaid vouchers of this trust representing, they allege, rebates due them and which amount to more than the sum claimed by the distributing company. They offer these vouchers as an offset to that claim. It is said that similar vouchers for something like $2,000,000 are now in the hands of the various liquor dealers.

A Theater Fire in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—An early morning fire at the Garden theater, Fourteenth and Chestnut streets, resulted in the loss of one life and destruction of the building. Several persons employed in the theater as actors and servants were in the building and had narrow escapes.

INVESTED BY JAPS.

The Chinese Can't Hold Port Arthur Much Longer.

A THIRD JAP ARMY FORMED.

It Has Assembled at Hiroshima 24,000 Strong—An American Arrested For Sketching Hong-Kong's Defenses—Chinese Emperor's Wife Reported Dead.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from The Times' Shanghai correspondent states that it is reported there that the Japanese have completely invested Port Arthur and that the Chinese forces defending that place cannot hold out long.

A dispatch received in this city from Shanghai states that an unconfirmed report is current in Tien Tsin that Yehon-ala, the emperor's young wife, is dead.

The Times today publishes a dispatch from Yokohama saying that a third Japanese army numbering 24,000 men is assembled at Hiroshima.

The Times also publishes a Hong-Kong dispatch stating that William Hill, an American, has been arrested and fined $100 for sketching the defenses of Hong-Kong.

HYPNOTIZED HIS VICTIM.

A Michigan Man Sentenced For an Awful Crime.

Sparta, Wis., Oct. 30.—Samuel S.
Buxton has pleaded guilty to the murder of Mary A. Jones, a maiden lady, at her home a few miles from this city, where she resided alone. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

The crime was one of a revolting nature. Three years ago Buxton, by a series of obscene letters purporting to be from a witch and directed to Miss Jones, hypnotized her and caused her ruin. The intimacy was conducted to the day of her death. By the same system of deceit the infatuated woman consented to be strung up by the neck in the belief that it would cause the death of Buxton's wife. The second time the experiment was tried Buxton pushed the chair on which the foolish woman stood from under her and she swung into eternity. Buxton took what money was in the house and left for his home, a short distance away, where he was arrested, brought to the city and lodged in jail. His motive for committing the murder is that he was tired of the woman. It was thought for a time that she had committed suicide.

Forget Eno Turned Down.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The United States supreme court has reversed the decision of the circuit court in the case of John C. Eno, formerly president of the Second National bank of New York, who was convicted of forgery in the New York state courts about 10 years ago. Eno raised the point that the state courts were without jurisdiction and that he could be tried only in the federal courts. This view of the law was upheld by the circuit court, but is upset by the decision of the supreme court, which remanded the case to the state courts.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 30.—Freder-buying tax receipts. He was held in $300 bail for a hearing. A warrant has also been issued for James Haines, an ex-policeman, on the same charge.

ment. By advice of his counsel Burke pleaded guilty to a charge of manslaughter.

NEW YORK CAMPAIGN.

Much Quiet Though Effective Work Being Done—Political Events.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Notwithstanding the quiet appearance of the different political headquarters in the city, a great deal of active political work is in progress both there and outside, and there is no doubt that the leaders of all the organizations are fully alive to the fact that only about a week remains before the day of election. All still express the utmost confidence in success of their respective tickets. So far as the city is concerned, the Tammany men place great reliance on their thorough organization and even their opo-nents admit that the full Tammany vote will be polled. The adherents of the committee of seventy ticket base their firm belief in winning upon the conviction that there will be, regardless of ordinary political methods, an "uprising of the people," such as overthrew the Tammany rule in 1871.

Much of the quiet work done is directed toward detecting frauds in registration and toward arranging to get to the polls, without fail, all who are duly registered. Men who seldom take an active part in politics are laboring to make converts of personal friends, and there has seldom been a campaign in which there were more private political discussions. Perhaps the most important incident of the day was the attempt of a local newspaper to implicate Colonel Strong in an old matter involving leanings towards the A. P. A., and his prompt denial of any intentional participation in it.

Cleveland and Hill Men Together.

ALBANY, Oct. 30.—A mass meeting, the proportion of which has never been paralleled in Albany, was the result last night of the fusion of the two branches of the Democracy to tender a greeting to Senator Hill, who is now a resident of this city. At least 4,000 people thronged the great hall and as many more listened to speakers who were on the outside and unable to gain admission. A noticeable feature was the presence on the stage as a co-speaker Senator Hill, of Congressman Charles Tracey, who is looking on as a personal representative of the resident Cleveland. In the boxes at the hall were such Cleveland adherents as Judge Herriek, collector of the port, John Masterson and General Farnsworth.

Wilson Can't Speak at McKeesport.

KINGWOOD, W. Va., Oct. 30.—Hon.
W. L. Wilson addressed an audience of over 1,500 voters at this point, and at the close of the meeting left for Terra Alta in this country, where he addressed another large audience. He then took the late train for Martinsburg, where he will speak this evening. A strong effort is being made to induce him to go to McKeesport, Pa., for tomorrow night, but it is not probable he can accept, as he must fill an engagement at Elkins, Randolph county, Thursday.

Carl Schurz the Principal Speaker.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Cooper Union was crowded last night when the Reform Democrats met to express their determination to support Everett F.
Wheeler, their nominee for governor to who said it was needless for him to say more than to thank his friends for the evening's demonstration and to ask them to stand shoulder to shoulder for the triumph of Democratic principles. Carl Schurz was the principal speaker.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Governor McKinley of Ohio arrived in the city at 6 o'clock last night and was greeted at the depot by a large crowd of enthusiastic Republicans, who escorted him to the Chicago Beach hotel, where he dined. Immediately after dinner the governor was driven to the armory of the first infantry, where a crowd of about 6,000 people had gathered to hear him.

Carlisle Won't Make Speeches.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Secretary Carlisle will not make any political speeches during the present campaign.
The secretary had a conference with the president in regard to the matter. The president agreed with the secretary that attention to the public business should be the first duty of every official, and therefore it was decided that all invitations to speak should be declined.

SONG BY A BEAUTIFUL LADY.

She is a Well-Known and Popular Resident of East Liverpool.
Let me tell you a beautiful story, a story of love and of joy.
A passage in life with a loving wife—of bliss-ing without alloy.
A story of truest affection, and teeming with kindest delight.
A husband bold, good as pure gold—making his home so bright.
He knew his wife was a treasure, more precious than rubies or pearls.
As he often told Roy—the eldest boy—and whispered the same to the girls.
But husband was in a brown study, a crisis had come in his life—A crisis so queer, it filled him with fear, he was falling in love with his wife.

'Twas an awful condition for hubby, and something must surely be done; It made him glow, like a country beau, and caused him oceans of fun.
He had loved his wife the day they were wed—yes, loved her fondly and well.
Yet his present state, over his married mate, was as rich as a wedding bell.

He puzzled his brain over the matter, and the sunlight came into his life.
As the lovers part, gave voice in his heart—
"Oh, what can I do for my wife?" He thought full and deep on the subject, and then the answer struck home.
And he took the right plan, like an honest man, with no occasion to roam.

For right here in this beautiful city, he discovered a woman's desire.
A subject old, but precious as gold, one of which she never will tire.
'Tis a story of beautiful garments, of wraps, mink, otter and seal.

And kindred furs, one of which must be hers—or sorrow, indeed, will she feel.
So hubby went straightway to Porter's, at the popular People's Stores.
Was filled with amaze at the great wrap craze—the crowd surrounding the doors.
But he crowded his way through the massive throne, then glanced to left and right.
And listened with glee to remarks, "Oh, see!"
and kindred notes of delight.

It didn't take long for hubby to make up his mind to buy.
He wanted it nice—"Oh, bother, the price!" for hubby was not on a high.
A high-hearted feeling of gladness, deep love for his better half.
Could shoot for joy like a happy boy—did him infinite good to laugh.

So he captured the rarest seal-skin, the prize in the "FINE FUR" sale.
Each maiden fair assembled there, with envy turned white and pale.
But hubby went home to his sweetheart, who greeted him with a kiss.
And then the wrap was dropped in her lap—imagine, ladies, her bliss.

But Porter has many prizes, and the price will just suit your purse.
For this keen business man has evolved a plan rich presents to all to disburse.
So come to the FINE FUR sale, on Wednesday and Thursday—this week.
Beyond mishap you will purchase a wrap—no occasion further to seek.

Tesla's Experiments.

Nikola Tesla, the famous electrician, entertained the Electro-Therapeutic association Monday at his laboratory at 85 South Fifth avenue. He made a number of interesting experiments, in one of which his visitors received 7,000 volts of electricity without injury. This was followed by a current of 800,000 volts, during which the guests, who were in a darkened room, became illuminated and sparks flew from them and from the furniture with which they came in contact. No one experienced the slightest inconvenience. —New York Tribune.

Refused a Further Hearing.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—Judge Dallas, in the United States circuit court, has refused to grant Lawyer Nathan Bigur a further hearing on Rice's objections to the Olcott-Eagle plan for the reorganization of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company. The judge also took occasion to express his disapproval of the length of time the receivership has been in force. He also dismissed the exceptions of Henry S. Whitney of the Fitzgerald committee.

Express Robbers Confess.

THE DALLIES, Or., Oct. 30.—After two weeks' unsuccessful endeavor on the part of detectives and local officers, the parties who robbed the Pacific Express company's office in this city of $14,000 on Oct. 12 have at last been apprehended and placed under arrest and all but $200 of the money recovered. Frank Klein and Otis Savage, young men of respectable parentage living here, are in jail, having made a complete confession of the theft.

Reward Offered For Dynamiters.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 30.—The county commissioners have offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the men who blew up the Hungarian shanty with dynamite. The latest theory is that some boys planned the plot and carried it out. Three lads who have heretofore not borne a good reputation were missing from their homes the morning of the explosion.
The detectives have them under surveillance.

The Trojan war was a conflict between the mother country and some of the strongest colonies and would have been fought if Helen and Achilles and Agamemnon and the rest had never been born.

An Accomplished Teacher.

Professor George E. Evans, who opens a school for dancing in Turner Hall, this city, on Saturday next, comes into our midst backed by the warmest of recommendations as to his efficiency as an instructor.
His system of teaching is complete in every detail, and yet is so simple that any scholar of average intelligence can comprehend and master the various steps and dances. The waltz is made a special feature for those who are fond of this dance. Terms, 60 cents per couple. Misses' and children's class in the afternoon from 4 to 6:30. Terms, 25 cents per lesson.
Delsarte and character dances taught. Remember the opening date Saturday November 3.

Down in Dixie.

A series of pictures in real life in the south is offered in the superb fictional drama "Down in Dixie." The play is such as to call for the participation of a number of actual darkeys who make merry music for the listeners. It tells the story of a brave little Carolina girl who by deeds of heroism overcame the prejudices of the proud family of the man who had secretly married her. It is at the Grand tomorrow evening.

Improvements.

Several improvements were made at central fire station today among them being the addition of a box to which is attached a device that cleans the feed before it reaches the horses. It is an improvement which all the firemen appreciate. The population of the station has been increased by the addition of 13 dogs, every one of them a favorite.

He Was Drunk.

A drunken man and his wife created considerable excitement on Second street this afternoon by indulging in attempts at fistfights, staggering about in a disgusting manner. It was some time before the woman found a friend who took her intoxicated partner away and together they started up the railroad.

MAXIMUS.

I held him great who, for love's sake, Can give, with generous, earnest will,
Yet he who takes for love's sweet sake I think I hold more generous still.
I bow before the noble mind That freely some great wrong forgives, Yet nobler is the one forgiven Who bears that burden well and lives.
It may be hard to pain and still
To keep a lowly, steadfast heart, Yet he who loves has to fill A harder and a truer part.
Glorious it is to wear the crown Of a deserved and pure success.
He who knows how to fail has won A crown whose luster is not less.
Great may be he who can command And rule with just and tender sway, Yet is diviner wisdom taught Better by him who can obey.
Blessed are they who die for God And earn the martyr's crown of light, Yet he who lives for God may be A greater conqueror in his sight.
—Adelaide Procter.

A NEGLECTED WONDER.

The Spanish Escorial, a Marvelous Specimen of Ancient Architecture.

The Escorial, the palace of the Spanish king, an architectural marvel, formerly described as the "eighth wonder of the world," is now seldom spoken of, even by those who are ready to go wild over much less pretensions structures. The cornerstone of this "Spanish St. Peter's" was laid by Philip II in 1563, but it was 302 years (1865) before the monstrous building was pronounced finished. It was built by Philip in fulfillment of a vow to "erect the finest monastery in the world" should his forces be successful in their great battle with the French. That battle was fought at St. Quentin on Aug. 10, 1557, St.
Lawrence day, and in order to honor that saint as well as to fulfill his vow the king had the foundation of his great memorial laid off in the shape of a gridiron, the implement of torture upon which the goodly Lawrence is reputed to have suffered martyrdom.

To those who have never visited the Escorial the size of the gigantic structure is beyond comprehension. It is 740 feet from north to south and 580½ feet from east to west, the square towers at each corner rising to a height of over 200 feet. Within this monstrous building is the king's palace, a cathedral, a monastery of 200 cells, two colleges, three chapter houses, three library buildings, five large halls, six dormitories, three hospitals and over 3,000 other rooms. In order to make St. Lawrence's gridiron complete, the building is built in quad-rangular form, with 17 rows or ranges of monstrous stone structures crossing each other at right angles, these forming the gridiron's ribs, the handle being a wing 470 feet in length. The church, which is a part of this vast pile of masonry, is 364 feet long, 230 feet wide, with a dome 330 feet in height.
It is estimated that the building cost $50,000,000. —St. Louis Republic.

Catching Shrimp in the South.

The Charleston gourmet is now joyously feasting daily on our own little dish, the shrimp. There is hardly a family in the city that does not have this dainty little crustacean served for breakfast in some shape or form. When the dark shades of night drop over the harbor, the hardy shrimp men man their little canoes, and with their cast nets neatly arranged and ready to be thrown they make for the long, dark shores of marsh where their prey makes its feeding grounds. They have to wait silently and patiently on the edges of the marsh until a certain time of the tide, when out come the shrimp in millions, and out fly the heavy nets, and the work commences.

The oarsmen pull or punt or paddle along the shore, and the man with the net keeps his eyes and ears open for the ripple and sound of the sportive shrimp.
As the shrimp moves through the water he is a beautiful sight. The most beautiful colors shine from his long body, and his fan shaped tail stirs the phosphorescence and leaves behind him a subdued trail of fire.

When the usual quantity is caught and the turning of the tide takes the shrimp to other spots, the shrimpers pull for the wharves to sell their spoil.
Long before daybreak the vendors, men and women, are on hand with their trays to get their morning's supply for their numerous customers. The number of these vendors can be safely put at 300.

Addison's Characteristics.

Addison is the very embodiment of that delightful gift of humor on which we pride ourselves so much as a specially English quality. That in its way his style is the perfection of English style is less dear and delightful to us than that what it conveys is the perfection of feeling. His art is the antipodes of that satirical art which allows human excellence only to gird at it and insinuate motives which diminish or destroy. Addison, on the other hand, allows imperfections which his interpretation turns into something sweeter than virtue and throws a delightful gleam of love and laughter upon the eccentricities and characteristic follies of individual nature. That he sees everything is one of the conditions of his genial forgiveness of all that is not mean or base or cruel.
With these he makes no terms.—Mrs.
M. O. W. Oliphant in Century.

Paper Water Pipes.

The making of water pipes out of paper pulp is receiving much attention and is said to be successful, even in the crude manner in which all first attempts are undertaken. They are said to be as durable as iron, and the process of molding them is about the same in both cases.—Hardware.

California was equal to a little more than one quart for each man, woman and child in the United States.
